Welcome back to St. Mark's Dance Studio! As you know, all classes will be conducted virtually. We are using Zoom and ask that you become familiar with this platform. We have modified our classes, scheduled new class times, and provided two, seven-week sessions to create as positive a Zoom experience as possible. Our students are our priority!

You will notice that our registration form has several lines, should your child wish to take additional classes. Please consult your current teacher first to ensure additional classes are dance level appropriate.

The registration form must be emailed to the respective teacher of the class that the student will attend.
